STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- 1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- 3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
- 4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
- 5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- 7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- 9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- 11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- 12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
- 13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1) Following release from imprisonment, the court will evaluate defendant's status and determine whether, after incarceration, drug rehabilitation, sex offender treatment, and/or mental health treatment is necessary and appropriate. If additional rehabilitation is deemed appropriate, the defendant shall participate in a program or programs as designated by the court, upon consultation with the probation officer, until such time as the defendant has satisfied all the requirements of the program or programs.
- 2) The defendant shall reside in a residence free of firearms, ammunition, destructive devices, and dangerous weapons.
- 3) The defendant shall submit his person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1), other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, or office to a search conducted by a United States probation officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. An officer may conduct a search pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that the defendant has violated a condition of his supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation.

The following special conditions of supervised release are appropriate in this case. These conditions of supervised release are included after considering the nature of the instant offense, based upon the history and characteristics of the defendant, and involve no greater deprivation of liberty than is reasonably necessary for the purposes set forth in 18 U.S.C. §§ 3553(a)(2)(B), (C), and (D). The court's standing order No. 2018-7 (Re: Adoption of Special Conditions of Probation and Supervised 15 Release in Criminal Cases Involving Sex Offenses and in Other Appropriate Criminal Cases) dated July 27, 2018, provides conditions of supervision for defendants who are convicted of a sex offense, or whose circumstances warrant the application of certain conditions:

- 4) The defendant shall have no contact, direct or indirect, with any victim identified in the presentence report, or any victim's family member.
- 5) The defendant shall not use any computer, cellular telephone, Internet-capable device, GPS device or other device to contact a minor, gather information about a minor, or locate a minor.
- 6) The defendant shall submit to polygraph or any other court approved testing to monitor the defendant's compliance while on supervision.
- 7) The defendant shall submit to an evaluation/risk assessment by a qualified mental health professional approved by the probation officer, who is experienced in the treatment of sexual offenders. If deemed appropriate by the qualified mental health professional, the evaluation may include psychological and physiological testing (i.e. plethysmograph exams). The defendant shall take all medications reasonably related to his or her condition; complete all treatment recommendations, which may include physiological testing (i.e. polygraph exams), and abide by all rules, requirements, and conditions imposed by the treatment provider until discharged from treatment by the provider.
- 8) In cases involving a defendant who has used a computer, cellular device or the Internet in connection with a sex offense, the defendant may not purchase, possess, or use any computer as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1), cellular telephone, or other Internet-capable device without the prior approval of the court, upon consultation with the probation officer. In cases where approval is granted by the court, use of such devices shall be conditioned on defendant's compliance with the Computer Monitoring Program authorizing the probation office to identify, monitor, access and seize any such devices under the defendant's control.
- 9) The defendant must immediately disclose to the probation officer all computer device(s), cellular telephone(s), or Internet-capable devices to which the defendant has access.
- 10) The defendant shall participate in the Computer Monitoring Program adopted by this court and comply with all of the conditions in the program's Participant Agreement. The defendant shall allow monitoring software/hardware to be installed on each computer, electronic communication device, or other Internet-capable device the defendant has access to at the defendant's expense.
- 11) The defendant shall allow the probation officer to monitor his or her computer activities at any time, in the lawful discharge of the officer's duties. The defendant shall allow the probation officer to seize his or her devices and storage media for further analysis by law enforcement or the probation office, if the probation officer has reasonable suspicion that the defendant has or is about to engage in unlawful conduct or violate a condition of supervision.
- 12) The defendant shall notify employers, family members, and others with whom the defendant has regular contact of the defendant's sex offender conditions and that the defendant is under supervision by the probation officer.
